11/19/69

Dear Dick,

Let's forget the Mrs.

Re: your 11/17, Gary also told me in a letter I got today he had confirmed my advice. You did right to write O.

I know of no other source for the Kilgallen promise to break the case in five days than the one I gave you. And I am very clear on when, where and how I learned it, as I told you. I gave it to Jenn. This single, uncorroborated source was enough for him.

If I were to guess who Gary's Dallas source is, my opinion is that it is one you could credit on this, with no doubt in your mind. Besides, why should he flee Dallas? Where is he more safe than there, if he considers himself in any kind of danger?

It is hard to learn, but sometimes it is better to hold off, as Gary recommends on Seder. I have found that by delaying as much as a year and a half after wanting to interview someone what would have been a failure was a success. We learn more, as you will here.

Best regards.
